 - ☐ (D) any felony if the defendant has been convicted of two or more offenses described in (a) through (c) above, or two or more State or local offenses that would have been offenses described in (a) through (c) above if a circumstance giving rise to Federal jurisdiction had existed, or a combination of such offenses; or
 - ☐ (E) any felony that is not otherwise a crime of violence but involves: (i) a minor victim; (ii) the possession or use of a firearm or destructive device (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 921); (iii) any other dangerous weapon; or (iv) a failure to register under 18 U.S.C. § 2250;

OR

 - ☐ (A) a serious risk the defendant will flee; or
 - ☐ (B) a serious risk the defendant will obstruct or attempt to obstruct justice, or threaten, injure, intimidate, attempt to threaten, injure or intimidate a prospective witness or juror.

Procedure

During any such continuance, the defendant shall be detained. Id. The rules concerning the admissibility of evidence do not apply at the detention hearing. Id. The United States has the burden of persuasion by clear and convincing evidence that no condition or combination of conditions of release will reasonably the safety of any other person and the community or by a preponderance of evidence that no condition or combination of conditions of release will reasonably assure the defendant's appearance as required. Id.; *United States v. On July 13, 2020, Curt Ricks of the South Ogden Police department had obtained a search warrant for Timothy Pattan based upon information he had received from several sources that Pattan was dealing in large amounts of methamphetamine. He obtained a warrant for Pattan's vehicle, his home and Pattan himself. He along with Agent Shawn Grogan and AP&P Agent Trina Whitehead followed Pattan to a truck stop in Box Elder when they approached him and took him into custody. Pattan had the keys to the truck in his pocket.

Inside Pattan's truck, the officers about 2 pounds of marijuana and about ¼ pound of methamphetamine. Pattan also had about $2,000 in cash on his person. They transported Pattan and his vehicle back to South Ogden on 36th Street, which is in the PSN zone. Pattan would later admit to owning the truck, 2005 Dodge Ram 2500 VIN (3D7KS28C35G768870), outright and having previously had a vehicle forfeited for drug distribution.

They agents, along with other officers, executed the search warrant on Pattan's home. The home had several camera around the exterior and in his bedroom they located more marijuana (several pounds), another ¼ pound of methamphetamine, pay/owe sheets, packaging materials, scales, and psilocin mushrooms.

Post-Miranda, Timothy Pattan admitted that all the drugs were his and that the cash found in the home (about another $22,000) was proceeds from drug sales. He stated he used this money to purchase more drugs and sell them. He stated he had a small network of people he sold drugs to and was trying to save up enough money to start a mechanic business.

The drugs were sent to the state crime lab and tested. In several plastic bags there was 289 grams of 100% pure methamphetamine. There were two bags containing 27.7 grams of Psilocyn mushrooms. There was approximately 6.4 pounds of marijuana seized in total. The total amount of money seized from Pattan was $24,661.
